LEGISLATIVE CLUB OF 1909.

Officers and Executive Committee Elected at Special Session.

Mr. Burnes of Greenwich called the house to order Thursday morning for the purpose of forming a legislative club from the members of the general assembly. There were just four members before the house was to convene, and there was need of haste. It was, perhaps, for this reason that proceedings were informal.

On the motion of Mr. Scott of Plymouth a committee was appointed to report a list of officers. Mr. Burnes delayed not, but with suspicious addressness selected Mr. Scott, Senator Lathrop, Mr. Lathrop, Mr. Lathrop, Mr. Chandler of Rocky Hill, Mr.
Chandler was prompted to observe that Mr. Scott and he rarely agreed on anything.

The committee retired and fifteen seconds later reported a list as follows:

President—Speaker Elmore S. Banks.
Vice Presidents—Senator Isaac W.
Brooks, Torrington; Charles E. Seale, Thompson; Luster L. Loring, New Haven; Samuel S. Chamberlin, Hartford; Benjamin F. Turner, Middletown; Greenwich; Richard T. Higgins, Winchester.

Secretary—Representative Edwin H.
Keach, Killingly.

Treasurer—Senator Frank L. Stiles, North Haven.

Executive Committee—Senators Charles W. Barnum, Salisbury; Philip L. Holzer, Bridgeport; Irving H. Chase, Waterbury; Representatives Herbert R. Coffin, Windsor Locks; Omar W.
Platt, Milford; Lucius E. Whitton, New London; Lewis Prevest, New Canaan; Guilford Smith, Windham; Benedict E.
Lyons, Thompson; Thomas E. Burroughs, Saybrook; Edward E. Fuller, Tolland; Lyman T. Tingler, Vernon; James T. Serzwick, Litchfield; Roscoe H. Wright, Ashford.

When this list was put to vote there was a yell of "ayes" and a storm of "noes." The speaker declared the vote carried and the officers elected.

There was a whirlwind of "fought" from over the house, but Mr. Burnes would not be balked. He endangered the gavel block. Then he himself moved to adjourn and declared the motion carried. He dismounted with dignity.

Growd to Newport.

The New Haven road's excursion to Newport Thursday on the Norwich line steamer City of Lowell was well patronized, there being 1,581 passengers aboard. The Sound greyhound company also had a large number of passengers. The greater part of this number came by special trains from Springfield, Hartford, Waterbury and Bridgeport, but there was a crowd from New London. Norwich had 150 of the number and all had a fine time.

For Saturday, July 24th, we suggest that you take home one box each of

Baker's 29c Chocolates,

Arizona Cactus Candy

and

Boston Marshmallows.

This will give the wife and children a remarkably pleasing assortment of awful nice candy for just 40c. They will get quality, novelty, toothsomeness—can you equal it in any other place for anywhere near the money?

We think not. Try it.

PARADES

Three days ago Mrs. Rubin left for New York via the Chelsea, since which time she has written to Mrs.
Canfield. Mrs. Canfield wrote her a woman of unbalanced mind. It is stated that they had mortgaged the property before leaving and that it had also been insured. The letter it is said, told of plans for a terrible fate to her children.

The family came here from New York and have lived in Preston several years. Mrs. Rubin claims to have rich relatives in New York city, but had often said she would not appeal to them.

The shameful treatment of the children, as brought to the notice of Mrs. Canfield, aroused her indignation, and he will make an effort today to see the proper officials of the town and have the children cared for.

There has been trouble in the Rubin household for some time. It is said that the children were given five in Preston, a short distance beyond the Bates place, and a few weeks ago as the result of a family fight Mrs. Rubin was reported as having been found dead by the roadside and her husband and his brother were arrested for carrying the wife while they had trouble and was not badly injured and had fainted when it was thought she was dead. The husband and wife had quarreled, he having been very jealous of her, although after his arrest he returned home and for a time they lived in peace.

However, about two weeks ago, he left for New York, going from there to Preston, to the effect that the five children had been abandoned by the parents and were being cared for by neighbors. He had walked to the city to see if something could not be done for them, and his being given three days ago by the mother, the father having gone some time previously.
They had only a half loaf of bread to take with them and were given food by Mrs. Canfield, when they learned their condition. Captain Lincoln to the house and were given to inform them of the circumstances, which will be done today. Later Captain Lincoln reported the circumstances to Humane Agent George H. Stanton, who will look into the matter this morning. The oldest of the children is a nine year old and the youngest about eleven months.
